Mixed team takes out qualifier to compete in Wanderers Cup final

Marie Hogg

CECIL Hills Public School has qualified for the Wanderers School Cup for the first time.

The boys and girls are in the finals after winning the mixed division of the Blacktown qualifying tournament.

The primary school will be joined by Cecil Hills High, which also qualified.

Community Engagement manager Josh Hunter said there was a wealth of talent in the suburb.

“The suburb has success in the Wanderers Schools Cup with Cecil Hills High School having won the High School division in the past,” Mr Hunter said.

“Both Cecil Hills schools have been great ambassadors in Western Sydney Wanderers programs.”

Cecil Hills Public School have also been nominated for the Junior Sports Star Team Spirit award.
